PRESS RELEASE 1/2025

TILL HYDRAULIK BECOMES HYDRECO HYDRAULICS GMBH: A NEW NAME FOR A STRONGER FUTURE

Helmstedt, Germany, February 6th, 2025— Last February 3rd, in line with the Group strategic growth plan, Till Hydraulik GmbH, a renowned name in mobile applications and customized micro-hydraulic solutions, has officially rebranded as Hydreco Hydraulics GmbH. This change reflects its integration into the global Hydreco Hydraulics family, a part of the Duplomatic Motion Solutions Group since the acquisition of Till Hydraulik in December 2021.

This milestone marks the evolution of a company with over six decades of expertise, founded by Günther Till in 1962, into a key player within the Hydreco network. The rebranding underscores Hydreco's commitment to strengthening its global presence in the mobile sector, expanding its footprint in strategic European markets, and enriching its portfolio of innovative hydraulic solutions.

A Legacy of Excellence Meets a Global Vision

Till Hydraulik, based in Helmstedt, Germany, has been a leader in four hydraulic sectors:

- Custom micro-hydraulics, widely used in medical applications such as surgical tables.
- Specialized cylinders for heavy-duty applications and unique requirements.
- Compact manual actuators and hydraulic valves for mobile machinery.
- Services for own and third-party products. Maintenance and repair of hydraulic cylinders and valve technology.

With a workforce of two hundred employees and an annual turnover of more than € 30 million, the company's expertise aligns seamlessly with Hydreco's extensive product range, which includes pumps, valves, pilot controls, power take-offs, serving industries such as agriculture, construction, marine, defense, and transport.

A Strategic Investment for the German Market

"The integration of Till Hydraulik into Hydreco Hydraulics enhances our capability to deliver cutting-edge solutions tailored to the mobile German market while leveraging the global strength of the Duplomatic Group", stated Roberto Maddalon, CEO of Duplomatic Motion Solutions and Hydreco Hydraulics GmbH. "This synergy allows us to meet our customers' needs more effectively and expand our solutions in motion control globally." Maddalon concludes.

Hydreco Hydraulics: A Global Network with Local Expertise

Hydreco Hydraulics operates with a global footprint that includes facilities in the UK, Italy, the USA, Australia, India, Norway, and Germany. The rebranding of Till Hydraulik as Hydreco Hydraulics GmbH further solidifies its position as a leader in motion control and customized hydraulic solutions. The new Hydreco Hydraulics GmbH continues to honor its legacy while embracing a future of innovation, reliability, and international collaboration, staying true to its commitment to serve customers across diverse industries with excellence.
